

CUSTOM-MADE WEAPONS

Custom-made weapons are extremely expensive and rare gems. They are only available on order if you know a very talented gunsmith who is willing to make the weapon for you. This type of weapon is reserved for professionals who are not too eager to spend money and who want weapons of excellent quality and very good precision. They are of course highly illegal because they are intended to kill for certain.

Cyberdyn offers a complete range of war weapons for special customers (elite units, secret government agencies, etc). These exceptional weapons are available only on order, hence the impossibility to find them except perhaps on a corpse...

Only an infantryman in power-assisted combat armor or with a heavy linear frame can handle such a weapon of mass destruction. Its main disadvantage, a low capacity drum magazine, can be replaced by a 500 belt. A whole system of gyrostabilizers makes the weapon much more precise and controllable during firing. Moreover, if necessary, it is possible to fire in single shots without starting the rotation.

M2019 Blaster

Rate of fire : 2	Length : 24 cm
	Country : USA
This work of art is the result of the combination of a Steyr-Mannlicher Model SL .222 rifle and a Charter Arms Bulldog revolver. Both guns have been rechambered with very similar ammunition, .44 Magnum instead of .44 Special and 5.56 mm instead of .222, for convenience, as these old calibers are not available. The handling of the bolt action rifle part is not easy and it is advised to use it only as a last resort.
