

HEAVY PISTOLS

Even in the cyberpunk world, 11 millimeters and above are those calibers that can be considered heavy. With the appearance of Kevlar "Spider Web", the need is felt on the police and corporate forces and later in civilian markets, for heavier weapons that can do damage to someone packing that kind of armour. Advances in the resistance of materials and its tolerance to heat have permitted powerful weapons that are compact and reliable. From a legal point of view, in the USA of 2020, all calibers of 12 mm and under, can be legally carried in any self-defence weapon. Greater calibers are restricted to usage on private property.

This gun is one of the best available on the market. Sebuero quickly proved that he was the most talented gunsmith on the planet. The magazine of this weapon is unique and gives him an amazing capacity for such a caliber. Moreover, the bullpup configuration makes it even more accurate. And if the general shape of the weapon can be a problem with a holster, Seburo sells special ones for 80 eb.

Seburo C-X

Magazine : 10	Length : 26 cm
Rate of fire : 2	Country : Russia
The Tzar is a rare weapon in the west because the 11 mm S ammo it uses cannot be found easily. In Russia however, it is frequently used by surveillance militias and unfortunately by mobsters.

Tohiatsu Intruder 11 mm
Type : Medium semi-auto pistol	Cartridge : 11 mm (3D6)
Accuracy : +2	Reliability : very reliable
Availability : Rare	Range : 100 meters
Concealability : Long coat	Cost : 2150 eb
Magazine : 10	Length : 38 cm
Rate of fire : 2	Country : Japan
The Intruder is an expensive weapon. Very impressive (see Cyberpunk cover) and terribly precise, it comes from factory with smarlink, recoil compensators and a simple scope. Its also one of the few pistols around with 100 meters effective range. Tohiatsu had a market in mind when it developed such a technological pistol. Very simply to make it the first choice of assassins of all breeds.
